

Do not continue the deregulation of media and do not allow cross ownership. This is a disservice to the American people-it costs us jobs, benefits, and the right to a variety of news sources and entertainment. Keep the media in the PUBLIC interest, not the interest of big business